Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School
Salt Lake City, Utah
June 2000

SHE RECOGNIZES not just smart academic students but she likes the kids with a “twinkle” in their eyes.

She values kids with potential, not always the perfect ones.

Her “incredible memory” allows her to immediately connect siblings and make people comfortable.

She is very personable, always helpful, and immerses herself in the school.

She is very considerate of others, is honest and dependable, and her feedback comes as constructive criticism rather than harsh negative comments.

She always follows up on kids to see how they are doing. Many will comment that her degree of caring is unusual.

She was “stolen” from the lower school because she is so nice.

This year’s Hallmark is dedicated to one of RHSM’s treasures, Karen Hyde.

March 2, 2000

Dear Class of 2000,

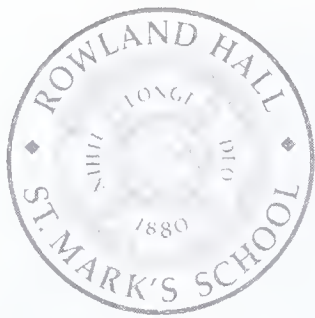

CONGRATULATIONS on your many successes here at Rowland Hall – St. Mark's School. Some of you have had sixteen years of Rowland Hall – St. Mark's School experiences and four of you have had just one. As a class you have continued to incorporate new students into your group. You have had many successes in academics, athletics and the arts, but none of them have been as important as the individual growth you have made as people. I have worked with a number of you individually and watched you handle yourselves with grace and dignity. I wish you the best as you head off to colleges and other post graduate activities, and I thank you for helping to make Rowland Hall – St. Mark's School a better place. I also wish to thank your fellow upper schoolers, who have helped you in your successes and have helped the school progress through their participation in activities, just as you have. You leave the student government in good hands with a great group of students following in your footsteps.

I wish all the upper schoolers a relaxing summer and a terrific first year of the new millennium, or last year of the old one, depending on how you want to look at the calendar. Whichever way you look at it, the class of 2000 is an outstanding group of individuals. Best of luck. Come back and visit us often.

Sincerely,

Alan C. Sparrow
Headmaster

Mary Ann Rees
Upper School Principal

January 12, 2000

Dear Class of 2000,

My buddy Katie Eyre just caught me in the hall and asked if I would write a letter to you for the yearbook. I felt, I am sure, the same way you often do. I had just "handed in" the cover letter for the February Hallmarker, as well as an article for the body of the newsletter. "I'm through with my homework," I had thought smugly. Katie was now giving me another assignment. But how could I let her down? "Sure," I said, after making certain she knew I was being put upon. I enjoyed the grouching but jumped at the opportunity to congratulate such a terrific bunch of seniors.

Truly, your class is remarkable. Your ranks hold multi-talented scholars, athletes, dancers, artists, musicians, and vocalists. You have honored Rowland Hall-St. Mark's Upper School with your achievements and will go on to honor your respective colleges and universities.

Tony Larimer always urged the RHSM graduates to tackle new interests in college, to take a course that was not required for their major, to broaden their experiences. I challenge you to do the same. And then I hope to hear about it. Make an effort to stay in touch with our Alumni Association. That way we can all hear about it, whatever it is!

Please know how important you have been to all of your teachers. You gave us warm memories, funny stories, and assorted anecdotes. Lucky you, to participate in commencement ceremonies this year. You will never have to say, "Now when did I graduate from high school?"

Congratulations, Class of 2000. Carry on with the verve we have come to expect of you.

Mary Ann Rees

First Day of School

Seniors, Chris Andrew, Dustin Cartwright, Jarrett Reich, and Nate Kogan, enjoy mid-morning refreshments, and they begin counting the days until graduation.

Twelfth grader, Julia Babilis, seems happy to be back for her final year of highschool.

Teachers, Paul Christensen and Peter Hayes, watch over the students during the Convocation.

A Freshman, Taylor Allred, takes a break from her first day of classes, and she wonders how on earth anyone (Charles Osborne) could have the hiccups for 69 years! Now that's impressive!

Junior girls, Darci Motoki, Laura Francis, and Liza Springmeyer, pose for the camera. Did you know that these girls will each consume about 35,000 cookies in their lifetime. They had better get a head start!

Student Body President, Vivek Bidwai, awaits his his turn to speak, and he recalls an interesting fact: a giraffe can clean its own ears with its 21-inch tongue. I wonder if Vivek can do that?

Emily Blair and Allison Goldstein enjoy some refreshing bottled water. Did you know that more people use blue toothbrushes, that red ones? Which color do you prefer Allison?

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GIVING YOUR CAT A PILL by Dr. G. Baxter

-Pick cat up and cradle it in the crook of your left arm, as if holding a baby. -Position right forefinger and thumb on either side of cat's mouth and gently apply pressure to cheeks while holding pill in right hand. -As cat opens mouth, pop pill into mouth, allow cat to close mouth and swallow. -Retrieve pill from floor and cat from behind sofa. -Cradle cat in left arm and repeat process. -Retrieve cat from bedroom and throw soggy pill away. -Take new pill from foil wrap, cradle cat in left arm, holding rear paws tightly with left hand.

-Force jaws open and push pill to back of mouth with right forefinger, hold mouth shut for count of ten. Retrieve pill from goldfish bowl and cat from top of wardrobe. -Call spouse from garden. Kneel on floor with cat wedged firmly between knees, hold front and rear paws. Ignore low growls emitted by cat. -Get spouse to hold head firmly with one hand while forcing wooden ruler into mouth. -Drop pill down ruler and rub cat's throat vigorously. Retrieve cat from curtain rail and get another pill from foil wrap. Make note to buy a new ruler and repair curtains. -Carefully sweep shattered Doulton figures from hearth and set to one side for glueing later. -Wrap cat in large towel and get spouse to lie on cat with head visible from armpit. -Put pill in end of drinking straw, force mouth open with pencil and blow down drinking straw. -Check label to make sure pill not harmful to humans, drink glass of water to take taste away. -Apply Band-aid to spouse's forearm and remove blood from carpet with cold water and soap. -Retrieve cat from neighbor's shed. Get another pill. Place cat in cupboard and close door on neck to leave head showing. Force mouth open with desert spoon. Flick pill down throat with elastic band. Fetch screwdriver from garage and put door back on hinges. -Apply cold compresses to cheek and check records for date of last tetanus shot. -Throw tee-shirt away and fetch new one from bedroom. Ring Fire Department to retrieve cat from tree across the road. Apologize to neighbor who crashed into fence while swerving to avoid cat. Take last pill from foil wrap. Tie the cat's front paws to rear paws with garden twine and bind tightly to leg of dining table. Find heavy duty pruning gloves from shed, force cat's mouth open with small wrench. Push pill into mouth followed by a large piece of fillet steak. -Hold head vertically and pour a pint of water down throat to wash pill down. -Get spouse to drive you to the emergency room, sit quietly while doctor stitches finger and forearm and removes pill remnants from right eye. Call at furniture shop on way home to order a new table. Arrange for ASPCA to collect cat and call pet shop to see if they have any Canaries!!!

WAYS TO BE ANNOYING

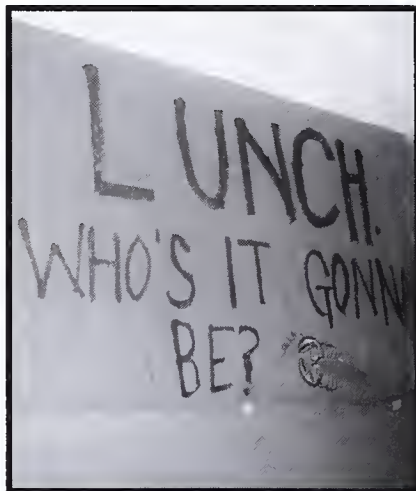

- repeat the following conversation a dozen times: "Do you hear that?" "What?" "Never mind, it's gone now"
- specify that your drive-through order is "to go"
- if you have a glass eye tap on it occasionally with your pen while talking to others
- follow a few paces behind someone, spraying everything they touch with Lysol
- decline to be seated at a restaurant, and simply eat their complimentary mints at the cash register
- begin all your sentences with "oohh la la"
- wander around a restaurant, asking other diners for their parsley
- wear your pants backwards
- inform others that they exist only in your imagination
- ask people what gender they are
- sing along with the opera
- sit in your front yard pointing a hair dryer at passing cars to see if they slow down
- erect an elaborate network of ropes in your backyard, and tell the neighbors that you are a "spinder person"
- leave your turn signal on for fifty miles

Kendra hard at work.

Libby Bolster is a kid at heart.

"Libby truly cares about her team and wants the best for them. She is determined in what she does. I could not ask for better coaches than her and Michael."

-Kristen Caswell

"Libby is a good motivator and she helps us with her fun spirit."

-Caitie Lowry

"Ray (swim coach) is the man!"

-Whitney Thompson

"Michael is a friend on and off the field."

-Taylor Christensen

"Coach Windam is the best person and coach I've ever met. Although he is strict at times, he means well."

-Chris Hill

"Kathy Howa is a nice lady with a good heart and she is always there for us."

-Janice Castillo

"Kendra is one of the best coaches I've ever had."

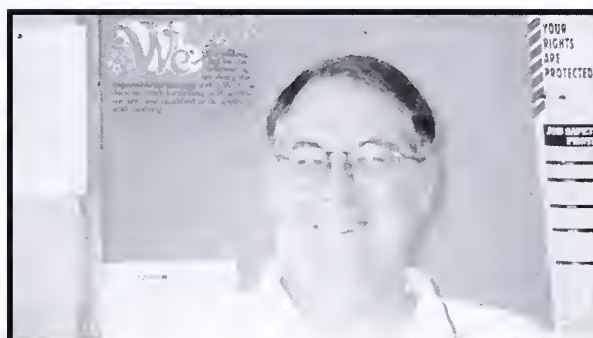

-Julie Stevens

Libby and Kathy greet everyone with a smile.

Peppy Kendra!

"MUTILATE GRANTSVILLE!!!"

This year the girls' basketball team had an outstanding season. Under the leadership of captains Carrie Cornwell, Andrea Graves, and Makiko Kasahara, the team finished with a 9-13 overall record. In the regular season the team finished 5-4, placing them second in the 2A northern region. Season highlights included buzzer-beating "running hooker" Carrie Cornwell, the team's only senior, and an upset over Juab in the region tournament. It was the first tournament win in recent RHSM history.

The J.V. team huddles up to plan a game-winning play: Becky, Heather, Rose, Tiffany, Stephanie L., Sarah, Stephanie T., and Teelke.

The die hard fans: Ashley Phillips, Chris Andrews, Teelke Sprie, Becky Webster, Sarah Wood, Ajay Virkar, Ed Heath, Kristin Caswell and Taylor Christensen.

Run James, run!

This year the cross country team was small but determined, their team motto being "try harder!" It was a difficult year because the team was considerably smaller than its competitors. However, the dedicated team had many memorable victories. At the Utah Valley State College meet, the boys' team took first place in the junior varsity race and Codie Anderson took fourth individually. Dustin Cartwright almost qualified for the state tournament with an 11th place finish. He and Catherine Clark also received academic all-state awards at the end of the season.

Swim Team

This year the swim team had the largest team compared to the last few years. The team swam amazingly well, and placed high in both region and state meets. Members included: Sarah Goldberg, Jillian Weiser, Molly McCarthy, Nikki Wyman, Erica Trauba, Mary Anne Wallace, Cameron Schlegel, Bear Travis, and Will Morey; and members from the first trimester only, Whitney Thompson and Renee Purcell.

RomarkSkiAcademy

Romark was founded in 1982 by Olle Larsson and Dr. Carl Kjeldsberg as part of Rowland Hall - St. Mark's School. (The name "Rowmark" is derived from the "Row" in Rowland Hall and the "Mark" in St. Mark's.) Former Rowmark skiers have excelled in national and international competition. Rowmark alumni have represented the United States in the last four winter olympics, winning medals the last three. Skiers begin the season with late summer camps on glaciers in British Columbia and Oregon; continue with dryland and weight training at the school campus; and move back to the snow at Park City's Olympic Race Arena in November.

Members of Rowmark:

Sophomore William Michalak chops onions at a local soup kitchen.

National Honor Society engaged in many beneficial community service projects this year under the leadership of co-presidents Divya Ramachandran and Tara Tribe. Other officers included Renee Purcell, Natalie Roetzel, Katie Eyre, and Mary Lombardi. In the fall, NHS members participated in Adopt-a-Block, an annual event in which students help neighbors with yard work and household chores. As usual, students also volunteered at the hugely successful Thanksgiving and Christmas food give-aways, which helped hundreds of Utah families during the holiday season. In February, NHS members organized a party for the kids at Head Start. Other community service projects included arts and crafts at Primary Childrens Hospital, tutoring at Bennion Elementary School, and soup kitchens.

Debate

Hey there, Maribeth coolly points to Coach Nick Barker after a day of debating at the U.S.C. tournament.

The team spends the day at Universal Studios after a tournament in California. Vanessa, Maribeth, Michael N., Coach Barker, Tiffany, Coach Hoglund, and Michael R.

This year the debate team went to many tournaments both in and out of state. They participated in tournaments at U.S.C., Redlands, Stanford, and Berkley. Regions and Districts both determined who would go on the bigger and better tournaments. The team consisted of both Policy and Lincoln Douglass debators. The Policy teams were, Michael Nierenburg and Tiffany Eagar, Vanessa Clayton and Michael Reynolds, Adam Dean and Matt Armentrout, and Maribeth LeHoux and Allyson Goldstein. Elisabeth Page, Lisa Fuller, and Marcus Anderson competed as L.D. debators. The team also got two new coaches this year, Ryan Hoglund and Nick Barker.

Coach Ryan Hoglund thought coaching debate would be easy, boy was he wrong. Below, hard at work at the U.S.C. tournament!

The Mosaic crew has been working hard all year, writing, performing, and turning out the annual school literary magazine. The class had two performances this year, reciting some of their literary pieces in front of their family and friends. Abby Tohinaka describes the members in the class as "physco freaks who write." Dr. Andy Hoffman, comes in to teach to this class and describes it as being "the inner city of Rowland Hall." If you walk by room B-2 and see the class yelling and dancing it is just a normal day in creative writing.

BELOW: Michael Nierenberg prepares for senior year, and he begins his college search. "So what kind of career opportunities are there for a guy like me?" asks Michael. Bruce answers, "Have you ever considered college counseling?"

College Counseling

The College Counseling Center became an important part of student life this year as seniors frantically completed applications and anxiously awaited responses from their chosen schools.

ABOVE: Bruce Hunter prepares documents for a discussion at a senior class meeting. Remember, "you will need to pick up a copy of each of the blue and yellow sheets."

BELOW: Rob Wood and Koshlan Mayer-Blackwell peruse a copy of the common application. I bet they wouldn't have found the Stanford one quite so amusing. But who really wants to go to Stanford anyway? At least Koshlan still has yet another year to decide where he wants to spend the next part of his life.

Production Faculty

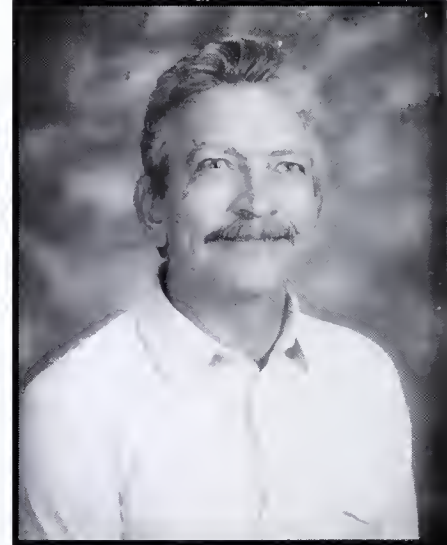

Traci Brand

Traci is in her fourth year as a drama teacher for the Middle and Upper Schools as well as director of the musical and the spring play. She received a B.F.A. from the University of Utah in Theatre Education. Her credits include Little Shop of Horrors, Noises Off, The Wizard of Oz, and A Midsummer Night's Dream. Traci is a fine teacher who is regarded as a friend by the students inside of class as well as out.

Ray Carlson

For the past seven years, Ray has been in charge of technical support for the Larimer Center. Ray has been stage manager or technical director for hundreds of professional productions during his career. His adaptations to the school's layout have been well appreciated.

Kathy Gleaves

As a second-year member of RHSM's faculty, Kathy teaches vocal music in the Upper School. She received a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from the University of South Alabama. She previously taught music at Vernal Middle School for six years before she joined the RHSM faculty. Her interests include camping, hiking, skiing, traveling, and reading.

Joan Kingston

A fourteen-year veteran of RHSM, Joan is the director of our highly successful dance program. In 1994, she was recognized by the National Dance Association as the National Dance Educator of the Year. Joan has done 65 residencies in 37 cities for the National Endowment for the Arts and has offered workshops at 13 conventions. She has been a member of the boards of advisors for both Ririe-Woodbury Dance Company and the Children's Dance Theatre and is currently a UAHPERD Board member. Joan holds a B.S. in Dance Education from the University of Utah.

Joan Kingston helps bring forth Dance Company's talent.

Traci's charisma inspires students every year to participate in the drama productions.

Chris Hill, above, and Liam Connelly, below, are able to master the art of clay under Fen's supervision.

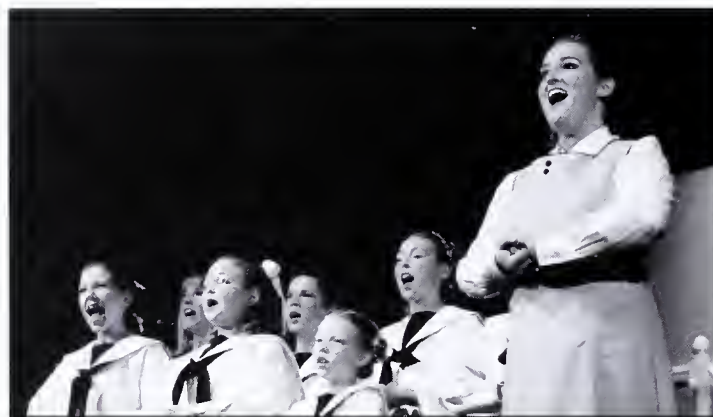

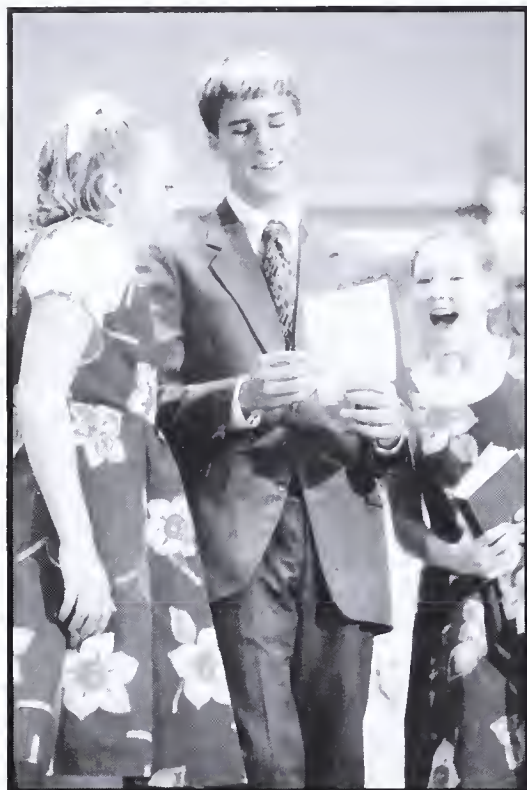

Fen is patient and supportive of all his students. His creative talents impress the students while inspiring them to create masterpieces of their own.

With Ray's knowledge stage crew provides good sound and music for the whole student body.

Rowland Hall-St. Mark's held the annual musical performance November 11-14, this year performing the well-known and very popular Sound of Music. The show started on Thursday night, which is one night earlier than the musical usually starts, due to the double casting of two roles. The lead role of Maria, the girl with the wonderful voice who thinks she wants to be a nun, was played by both senior Emily Stirba and by junior Mary Anne Wetzel. The other role that was double cast was that of Elsa von Schröder, the seemingly devious fiancée of Captain von Trapp, played by both senior Evan Zimmerman and junior Lauren Pardey. Captain von Trapp was played by senior Chris Andrews.

The musical is the story of Maria, a young postulant, who is sent to the Von Trapp household as their governess. Once there, Maria encounters several challenges. The children, whose mother had died some years earlier, are somewhat unruly. Their father, an Austrian naval captain, is for several reasons a bitter man, bent on total control of his family in the same way he has control over the men under his command, is very difficult to work with. Through a well-needed dose of fun, Maria manages to soften the heart of Capt. Von Trapp, and gain the respect and love of the children. At the same time, Capt. Von Trapp's life is complicated by the Nazi control over recently occupied Austria. Despite no similarities, Maria and the Captain manage to fall in love and get married.

Much like last year's musical The Wizard of Oz, the cast was comprised of students from both the Middle School and the Lower School. Those not from the Upper School played the roles of four of Captian von Trapp's children. This year's musical was one of the best in recent memory.

Choir, Band, and Stage Crew

... performing for the RHSM community ...

Our small but wonderful band is made up of Taylor Burton, Eric Sundstrom, Eric Strohacker, Creighton Moench, and Molly Creel (not pictured).

Band and Choir are conducted by Kathy Gleaves.

Distinctions

A limited number of students at RHSM may receive the Diploma with Distinction. These are awarded for specific, outstanding projects completed with a particular department, which, upon the student's satisfactory completion of the work, then grants the Distinction. Distinction programs in all departments involve a long-term time commitment beginning in the junior year and continuing through the senior year. The individual project is the equivalent of a full year's academic work.

This year there were twelve students "graduating with distinction," varying in subjects in many different programs.

The beautiful Zimmerman sisters showing us their glammer smiles.

Heather Matheson and Andrea Graves are festive and happy.

Tile Making

Furt Sanders claps his hands in joy as he creates a tile for Artstart. Isn't it great to see students having so much fun!

Chain Jewelry

Robert Humbert creates a magnificent piece of craftsmanship in the Chain Jewelry course. This was one of a few new courses to Artstart this year, and it was a wonderful experience for the participants.

Fly Tying

Robyn Steiner works tirelessly on the task presented to him in the Fly Tying class. Now that takes concentration!

ARTSTART

Swing Dancing

Kelly Buie and Bryan Lence rehearse for their onstage performance. This year's Swing class taught students numerous steps, aiding in their knowledge of the art of Swing dance. Back by popular demand, the course was truly a delight this year.

Beginning Guitar

Lauren Pardy practices her newly-acquired guitar skills during Artstart 2000. The course brought in students of many different abilities, and it provided the opportunity to learn an artform that dominates the American music scene. The Guitar course was new to Artstart this year, and it was a complete success.

Juggling

It's the 'JUGGLENUTZ!' That's right, the Jugglenutz made yet another appearance at Artstart. During lunch, they performed for anxious onlookers, juggling fire and knives. The students, of course, learned how to juggle as well. Impressive.

StudentLife

The Dance of Terror

The Cafeteria never looked so good with the decorations of toilet paper and plastic garbage bags. "It is about time someone trashed that place," (Vivek Bidwai).

"SABOTAGE!!" The Beastie Boys in their guest appearance at the Halloween Dance of Terror.

Whitney Thompson in the spirit of Halloween.

Guys not to mess with: Kyle Fetter, Bo White, David Sandberg, and Vivek Bidwai.

Chris Wardell, Hart Williams, Samuel Elias, and James Pelton are in disguise of crazed Mountain men.

Two hombres and their "woman" Jesse Goldsmith.

These girls look innocent but are wild and crazy dancers on the floor.

Liza Springmeyer, one of the winners of the best costumes, and boyfriend Justin Stoddard.

Catherine Clark: is she dead or alive?

Taylor Burton went mad trying to kill Spanish teacher Matt Burnett due to a head injury.

Alex Sanders in disguise as Mr. Hayes

Megan Andrews, Johanna Varner, and Sara Lappe looking good.

Noelle Teske, Lindey North, and Brittany Roetzel were all smiles.

Dan Long and Nate Kogan deejaying for their second time.

Jason Askins and Adam Smythe relive the 70's.

Brandon Rasmusson and Ryan Olson showing their sensitive side.

Tara Tribe and Christopher Andrews know they're hot.

The Last Dance

Cute couples slow dancing under mistletoe and winter lights.

Tim Cosgrove, Emily Blair, Vanessa Clayton, Taylor Burton, Eric Sundstrom, and Allyson Goldstein pose for Mrs. Lair.

Darci Motoki and Christopher Hill, ain't they cute?

Michael Reynolds, Frank Glissmeyer, and David Hoffman enjoy lovely holiday beverages. Is that fruit punch he is holding?

Christmas Dance Royalty: King Chris Andrews, Queen Kristen Caswell, Princess Nikki Wyman, and Prince Ryan Olson.

Seniors and dates stop dancing to take a group picture.

A thirty dollar ticket to the Last Dance

Sophomores, Johanna Varner, Mia Harmsen, Naomi Bishop, Robyn Payne, Greg May, and Adrienne Martain, sit down to rest from a night of dancing

Freshmen boys, Brandon Varner and Sharma Prateek, enjoy some drinks while their dates dance.

The RAVE:

Club Axi s

RIGHT: Rave chaperones, Jennifer Lair and Mary Jo Marker, enthusiastically watch the ravers. They make sure that no one gets into the the taps.

RIGHT: For these seniors, clubbing is a nightly event. Chris Andrews, Renee Purcell, Catherine Clark, Dan Boyer, Codie Anderson, Rachel Hobden, and Anna Jensen take a break from dancing, at the bar.

RIGHT: If you're happy and you know it, lean to the left...all these Junior girls, Heather Matheson, Mary Kimball, and Andrea Graves, seem to agree.

ABOVE: Shaking their groove thangs. These hot to trot underclassmen, get jiggy in the box. These dancers, Taylor Allred, Britney Roetzel, and Noelle Teske, will be here next week.

RIGHT: Underclassmen boys need a rest from their night of dancing. Matt Armentrout and Andrew Steiner are the objects of affection at this rave.

RIGHT: Centerfold Emily Stirba shows her true nature while she attempts to seduce Chris Andrews. You go girl! (Nice try, but we all know that Chris would never fall for that kind of seduction.)

Battle of the Classes

The Freshmen pull hard to win the tug of war.

Versus the reigning juniors.

Carrie Cornwell dominates as she pulls hot dogs out of a whip cream pie.

Evan and Codie get down and dirty for Battle of the Classes.

Thanks to all the RHSM students, faculty, staff, administrators, parents, and friends who helped make this the best yearbook in my tenure as yearbook advisor.

Literally thousands of pictures went into the making of this book. Most were not included, but the many photographers who contributed their talents, time, and equipment should be proud of their work included herein.

A special thanks also goes out the this year's Hallmark staff, an especially hard-working and talented group. Good luck to all of you.
